To Whom It May Concern:

The Kellum Eye Center began placing accounts with Louisiana Recovery Systems about 1 year ago. Since we began sending our accounts to them, the accounts have been handled very professionally. Each time that I need to call, everyone that I have had to speak to has been very knowledgeable about the proper collection procedures.

The amount of money that they have collected on our behalf has well exceeded any other agency that we have used in the past. I have recommended them to several local physician offices as well as several people that I have met through medical seminars.

I highly recommend Louisiana Recovery Services if you are in need of an efficient and professional agency.

Sincerely,
